

Media Specialist, Jeff Gallup

Jeff has been teaching since 1985, starting by working with emotionally handicapped students. He has worked in nearly every position in public education (teacher, instructional coach, and administrator) and is currently the Instructional Media Specialist at Ocoee High School. Jeff started the High School Stories podcast with students last year and loves promoting reading and academics.