

ESE

Monthly Newsletter

January/February 2019

This year is really starting to move. We have been so busy with our students. Working on social skills, academics, and independent functioning. We all want the students to be independent. Also, communication is crucial and if there is anything you need to know as a parent we are all here to help.

Ms. Avery's Class

Newsletter info:

Our Theme last month was: Reptiles and Amphibians

This Month's Theme: Authors and Illustrators

We continue to work on routines, rules and procedures, following our schedules.

Self-help skills: washing hands, toileting, dressing after using the bathroom, cleaning up after ourselves.

Requesting items such as food, utensils or asking for help when needed either verbally or through personal modes of communication. Learning that using to use our words as a way to

Writing: We are working on proper pencil/crayon grip and activities that strengthen our grasp

Letters of the week were: Vv, Xx, Yy

Colors: Green, Dark Green, Blue

Shapes: Heart, Hexagon, Pentagon

Our Theme Next Month: Insects and Spiders

Ms. Ibarra's Class

For the month of January/February:

ELA: ask and answer questions about key details in a text.

Identify the main topic.

Describe connection between the two books.

Identify parts of a book and if book is fiction or non-fiction.

The themes have been on MLK, president's day, Arctic animals, and Black History.

Writing: pencil grip and writing complete sentences.

Math: 2D and 3D shapes, money, and predictions.

Science: Living organism, Living and non-living needs.

Social Skills: using basic communication skills with peers and adults. Turn taking skills.

Mrs. Passio's Class

ELA: Comprehension, Comparing/Contrasting

Math: Money

Science: Living Organisms

ELA: Comprehension, Author's Purpose

Math: Coins

Science: Living Organisms, Plants

Mrs. Cavaliere's Class

L.A: Details of the story. Making sentences following a model.

Math: Measurement. Money.

Health: How to wash our hands. Why we need to exercise.

L.A: We work with "The Peace maker", and "Martin Luther King Jr. "from ULS.

Math: fractions.

Health: How our heart works and how to keep it healthy.